Author Guidelines

Original research work (Full length), short communication and case report (unique findings) written in English are acceptable for publication in the Bangladesh Journal of Agriculture and Life Science (ISSN: 2709-8702, eISSN: 2709-8710). Prepare your manuscript in American style of English.

The Manuscript should consist of the following headings.

Title: The title should be definite and concise reflecting the theme of the manuscript.

Running title: Running title should reflect the title and be limited within 50 keystrokes.

Author(s) with Affiliation: The authors should provide their details like department, university or organization, city and country of corresponding authors along with E-Mail address.

Abstract: The abstract should be clear which should emphasize on the manuscript and should not exceed 200 words. It should give brief outline & significance of the manuscript.

Keywords: Present the list of keywords (maximum five).

Introduction: The introduction should set the tone of the research work by providing a clear description of the work with a planned way or resolution. This ought to be general enough to draw in a reader's attention from a vast array of scientific fields.

Main body: The main body should include the descriptions of all types of materials & methods used and the main proposed ideas, results and discussions (results and discussion should be presented as separate sections; i. e. should not be combined together as single section). Discussion should be relevant and concise; however, extensive literature review is not permitted.

Conclusions: A valuable conclusion should be given for the closure of a research/review paper.

Funding/Acknowledgments: This section includes sources of funding, grants, details about anyone who contributed substantially towards the research study.

Author contributions: The contribution of all authors should be enlisted under the following heads: Conceptualization, methodology, formal analysis, validation, investigation, data curation, visualization, writing—original draft preparation, writing—review and editing, resources, funding acquisition, and supervision; followed by a statement “all authors have read and agreed to the published version of the manuscript”. Example: Conceptualization, YK; Methodology, YK and HMG; Investigation, YK, Supervision, HMG. All authors have read and agreed to the published version of the manuscript.

Conflict of interest: The authors should disclose if there are competitive interests.

References: References should be arranged alphabetically both within and at the end of the text. The reference number should be limited within 50 for full-length paper, 30 for short communication and 15 for case report. Please follow the styles of the references given below:
